

DO YOU HAVE A PLAN TO AVOID
CONFLICT OR HEAD IT OFF
BEFORE IT ESCALATES, WORSENS, AFFECTS YOUR BOTTOM LINE AND CREATES UNAFFORDABLE DELAY?

*It makes very good business sense to avoid conflict, or when it occurs to contain it and act to resolve it quickly.
We offer a range of services to do this.*

Our services include claims assessment, conciliation, mediation, adjudication and arbitration.

Construction Dispute Management & Resolution

ANTHONY G.V. TOBIN, B.TH (HONS), LL.B., M.AD. ED., F.C.I.ARB has practised law and dispute resolution for over 20 years. As an adjunct professor he has designed and taught courses in negotiation, mediation, arbitration and strategic advocacy. He has conducted advanced training for mediators, arbitrators and litigators.

He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators of London, a liveryman in the Worshipful Company of Arbitrators (a London Livery company) and a member of the U.K. Society of Construction Arbitrators.

He has hands-on practical experience, as a former city commissioner, in the management of construction and municipal projects in tendering, contract , planning approval and environmental issues.

His experience with construction dispute resolution issues covers a broad range of conflicts involving a variety of construction projects in British Columbia, the United Kingdom and Europe.

ARBITRATION

An expedited adversarial process. With the consent of the parties, we use a “time guillotine” approach to manage the process. Each side has a predetermined amount of time to present its case.

CONCILIATION

A non-binding process that provides recommendations within 28 days or less for the management of disputes.

MEDIATION

A managed and facilitated negotiation for dispute resolution. The disputing parties retain control over the final outcome.

ADJUDICATION

With the consent of the parties, a binding decision is made within 28 days adopting procedures used most successfully in the U.K. construction industry.

A fair prospect for dispute settlement
